

I use XM Radio as a matter of choice, based upon the digital quality of their offering and the uninterrupted programming when I travel. It is a subscription service that has no different effect upon the NAB than cable, and, as such, should not be subject of additional legislation to restrict its' offerings. I will contact my Congressional Representative and Senators with my concerns regarding limitiiing satellite radio's content.